

Instructions:

Before the worship begins, find a candle and a bowl of water. In the same way we light the candles as we begin worship – signifying the presence of Jesus as the light of the world – light the candle in your home. The space where you are at this moment is sacred space – it is a space that has been set aside for the special purpose of worship.

The bowl of water is your remembrance of baptism. Take a second and dip your finger in the water. Then trace the sign of the cross on your forehead. On the day of your baptism, you were given the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ. You are a child of God, created, redeemed, and sanctified by God.

This weekend we will also be celebrating Holy Communion. Take a moment to find bread and wine/juice to celebrate this meal with our gathered Church.

You can access our worship service either through our Facebook page (Shepherd of the Hill Lutheran Church), beginning at 5:00, Saturday, May 30th, or via our website, www.shepherdofthehill.com. You can use the button near the top of the page that will say “Worship 5/31/20” or you can scroll down our home page to the lower righthand corner. There you will find our Facebook feed.

Have your Bible ready to Acts 2:1-21. Please feel free to respond, say ‘Amen’, sing – we will lead you. Don’t worry, your Facebook friends can’t hear you, but God can.

NOTE: You are invited to a Zoom coffee hour immediately following Sunday’s 10:30 worship Watch party service. Check your email for an invitation. If you did not receive a Zoom invitation or haven’t Zoomed yet, write me at pastor.jon.pedersen@gmail.com.
