

Preparing the Soil

For week beginning on January 20

Being in relationship with God is more than just a once-a-week event. Just like any relationship, regular communication is needed. I challenge you to create a daily routine to prepare your hearts for God’s word. This is something that can be done in less than 20 minutes per day. It just requires a time and place of quiet (before the day begins or after the day has ended or even on the train coming home from work). The readings are designed to coordinate with the sermon theme of the following week. I invite you to follow each step Monday through Saturday.

I. Invocation (Pray this each day):

Blessed Lord God, you have caused the holy scriptures to be written for the nourishment of your people. Grant that we may hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that, comforted by your promises, we may embrace and forever hold fast to the hope of eternal life, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

II. Psalm 19 (Read this each day):

V. Reflection Silent and/or written

VI: Benediction (Spoken each day):

Go forth now as God’s servant. Remember God’s presence often and draw strength from the knowledge that the One who calls and sends also sustains. Amen.

The general idea and often the words of the benediction are taken from: A Guide to Prayer by Rueben Job and Norman Shawchuck, (The Upper Room: Nashville, 1983).

For an introduction for Week 56 readings, see SOTH’s webpage (shepherdofthehill.com), find the sidebar button entitled “Read Through the Bible Program”. The same introduction is also found on the Shepherd of the Hill Facebook page.

If you need some help understanding the Bible texts you are reading, try the Augsburg Fortress Lutheran Study Bible. Google “Augsburg Fortress Lutheran Study Bible” to buy through the Augsburg Fortress Publishing.

If you want a narrated version of the Bible, try out the audio Bible version from Bible Gateway (<https://www.biblegateway.com/resources/audio/>) or download the Bible Audio app from your app store.

A good online resource is called “Enter the Bible” (enterthebible.org). It is produced by Luther Seminary. This website can give you information about each book of the Bible. Take some time and explore.

Another good source of information is a Bible study that I did two years ago entitled “See Through the Scriptures.” Each of the lectures were videoed. Go to shepherdofthehill.com, click on the tab “Deepen Your Faith”. Look under the heading “Reading and Understanding the Bible” for “See Through the Scriptures.” Check out Sessions 11 & 12 as they cover the not only the fall of both the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the Southern Kingdom of Judah, but also the message of the prophets during that time.
